Known for its rich culture, Rome is sure to stimulate your interest. With its ancient architecture, indulgent cuisine, and pension for high fashion, the Eternal City has something special for everyone and will take fast hold of your heart.

THE BOSCOLO EXEDRA ROMA

In the heart of the Eternal City, in Piazza della Repubblica, between the Baths of Diocletian and the Basilica of Santa Maria degli Angeli designed by Michelangelo, the first 5-star luxury hotel in Rome was established. Owing to the astounding restoration and redesigning of a sumptuous late XIX-century palace, the Boscolo Exedra Roma is unmatched: 238 rooms, 2 showy restaurants, a superb terrace overlooking Rome, an exclusive well-being center and a spectacular Business Centre, suspended above ancient Roman excavations.

At the Boscolo Exedra the emotions gain the upper hand: a refined and discreet atmosphere enclose guests in extreme luxury and make them the key players in an experience worthy of a novel.
